Tracy "Jackie O" LaTourrette

Tracy "Jackie O" LaTourrette has flown missions all over the world as a combat mission-ready F-16 fighter pilot. Jackie O qualified in both the F-16 fighter and the C-21 Learjet and is currently flying with the Colorado Air National Guard as a highly decorated field grade officer. She is a U.S. Air Force Academy graduate with a coveted appointment by former Vice President George H.W. Bush. Post 9-11 Jackie O flew numerous missions in direct protection of President George W. Bush and Vice President Dick Cheney and recently returned from serving in a classified location in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom.

Jackie O has accumulated over 1,200 total flight hours, multiple Aerial Achievement Medals, and over 2,000 hours as an AWACS Air Weapons Controller. Her flying skills have won her several awards in Top Gun and Turkey Shoot competitions, and she has been recognized for her leadership skills on multiple fronts. She graduated from Carrier Airborne Early Warning Weapons School training at the Top Gun facility with the Navy. Tracy completed Fighter Electronic Combat training, Air Force Squadron Officer School, and is currently enrolled in Air Command and Staff College. Her background covers weapons and tactics, training, mobility, and scheduling, to name a few. Jackie O brings her expertise in discipline, flexibility, and process improvement to the thousands of participants she trains internationally.

Tracy's energetic style creates an environment where clients learn the Flawless Execution ModelSM, the pitfalls of channelized attention and task saturation, and gives them a sense of motivation and focus. Her clients always have fun and walk away with valuable tools they can apply to their business immediately.

A 5-year veteran with Afterburner Inc., Jackie O's extensive experience makes her highly sought after and often 'by-name' requested by Fortune 100 companies. Businesses such as Pfizer, Charles Schwab, General Electric, YPO (Young Professionals Organization), Harvard Business School, and Ford Motor Company accelerate their corporate success through Jackie O's training. A true professional and a real powerhouse, Jackie O's flexibility allows her to customize her programs to associations, as well, such as Junior League of Atlanta and Executive Women International. Tracy was recently featured on the cover of Contractor Magazine for her unique skills and motivational approach at Afterburner Inc. and is currently featured on the cover of Afterburner's hottest new release, "Flawless Execution".
